

Romans 13:8-10

What Did Jesus Mean When He Talked About Love?

Let no debt remain outstanding, except the continuing debt to love one another, for whoever loves others has fulfilled the law. The commandments, “You shall not commit adultery,” “You shall not murder,” “You shall not steal,” “You shall not covet,” and whatever other command there may be, are summed up in this one command: “Love your neighbor as yourself.” Love does no harm to a neighbor. Therefore, love is the fulfillment of the law.

Every Day with God

Jesus set the example for all of us. He had every right to condemn the people that put him on the cross. He had every right to be vindictive. He had every right to get even. Instead, what did he do? If there was to be peace in the world, someone had to set the example. Jesus’ message of love given to us in these verses tells us everything we need to know about what we must do. We must “Love your neighbor as yourself.”

Photo: When we walk in someone’s moccasin, we begin to feel what Jesus had in mind for all of us to do.

Prayer: Help me, Jesus, to show love.