

Romans 15:13

Do You Exude Hope?

Paul writes, “May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.”

Every Day with God

If all of us believed in the power of the Holy Spirit, we may not need jails. People who are in jail have lost hope, they have given up on themselves and they have given up on society to help them. On the other hand, those of us who trust in God and believe in his power, we are overflowing with hope because we are filled with the Holy Spirit. How can we get others to believe the same?

Prayer is one way, but the real work comes when we talk to people who are down. It’s important for us to exude hope so that our whole being exemplifies what God wants us to be—filled with hope, filled with the Holy Spirit.

By the way, if you ever needed a message to send to someone who needed to be uplifted, Paul’s verse in Romans is the message.

Prayer: Help me, Jesus, to exude hope.

Photo: Baby birds exude hope because they know their mother and father will take care of them. We need to help others find the same hope knowing that our father in heaven takes care of us.