

Romans 15:14-16

What Keeps You Safe?

I myself am convinced, my brothers and sisters, that you yourselves are full of goodness, filled with knowledge and competent to instruct one another. Yet I have written you quite boldly on some points to remind you of them again, because of the grace God gave me to be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles. He gave me the priestly duty of proclaiming the gospel of God, so that the Gentiles might become an offering acceptable to God, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

Every Day with God

Paul has faith in his fellow followers of Jesus. He tells them that he believes they have enough knowledge and are competent to instruct each other about the teachings of Jesus. Paul has never been in Rome and has not met these people but through his letters he has given them enough information to know that the Holy Spirit will provide the rest.

We often embark on a task that initially seems very daunting. We are anxious about how to approach it. We agonize over it. But because we have faith in the Holy Spirit to guide us, we go forward. It is the strength of the Holy Spirit working in us that propels us forward.

Prayer: Dear Jesus, thank you for sending your Holy Spirit to guide us in whatever we say and do.
