

1 Corinthians 1:10

Come Together, Right Now

Paul writes to appeal to the church in Corinth that is experiencing some turmoil. Here is what he says: “I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree with one another in what you say and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be perfectly united in mind and thought.”

Every Day with God

All of us have experienced divisiveness in our life. It may be at our place of work, within our own family, or among friends. This is our nature. It will always happen. We try to find ways to deal with it. Sometimes we do, sometimes we don't. Division within our church is another story. Paul is asking his church in Corinth to come together in the name of Jesus Christ. It is with Jesus who we all share a common bond. Jesus is the glue that holds us together as one. It is because of him that we care about each other and it is because of him that we will all be united on the last day. The church has one foundation and that is Jesus. If we see Jesus as our Savior there is no reason to be divided. Let us come together.

Prayer: Lord, help us be one.
